

Hotel Éclat Beijing Announces Mr. Lau Shun-cheung as the New Head Chef for Chinese Restaurant Sun Ming Yuen

The authentic Cantonese restaurant operated by Hotel Éclat Beijing is pleased to announce the appointment of the new executive chef, Mr. Lau Shun-cheung. Chef Lau started his culinary career from Hong Kong spending decades in the kitchen to enhance his traditional Chinese cooking techniques. His gastronomic journey has been across the major cities in Asia, such as Hong Kong, Thailand, and Japan. Chef Lau was invited to work for high-end restaurants and private clubs in order to deliver the spirit of Cantonese cuisine.

As an intimate and sophisticated gem hidden up right beside the great Parkview Green building, Sun Ming Yuen has established a great reputation among city's residents. This year, Chef Lau is going to introduce eager local diners as well as the travelers from all over the world to the optimum Cantonese flavor with 12 new signature dishes along with a new collection of à la carte menu, including dim sum and a great variety of traditional Cantonese cuisine.

Sautéed Scallops with Honey Bean in XO Sauce, Deep Fried Fresh Milk with Shrimps, and Double Boiled Essence of Pork Lung Soup are the gourmands' choices guest cannot afford to miss. The repeated guests can still find their all-time signature dishes such as the renowned Crispy Chicken on the menu.
